Statewide and Congressional candidates shall be endorsed only at a regular or special Convention of the CTRA. Endorsements regarding public initiatives and referenda as well as Republican Party questions shall be made in the same manner as candidate endorsements.

ARTICLE VIII

Local Republican Assemblies

SECTION 8.01. Governing Authority. The Connecticut Republican Assembly shall be the sole body of authority over, recognition of, and representation for Republican Assemblies within the State of Connecticut. Groups purporting to be "Republican Assemblies" which are not recognized and chartered by the CTRA shall have no representation on any body of the CTRA; shall not use the terms "Republican Assembly," "RA," or "Republican Wing of the Republican Party;" and shall not be entitled to any representation on any committees of the Republican Party of Connecticut (should such representation become available) or at any NFRA Convention.

SECTION 8.02. Location. Republican Assemblies may be formed and chartered, as the Bylaws hereinafter provide, in any geographical entity of the state of Connecticut.

SECTION 8.03. Ratification of Bylaws. Every local Republican Assembly shall ratify and agree to be bound in all things by the Bylaws of the Connecticut Republican Assembly and of the NFRA, as well as amendments thereto. Acceptance of a charter from the CTRA by any local Republican Assembly shall constitute a binding contract in this regard. Each Local Republican Assembly, by accepting a charter from CTRA, agrees that the CTRA has full authority to discipline any Republican Assembly charter and to recover the control the use of the name and the style "Republican Assembly", "Republican Wing of the Republican Party", the CTRA logo, any social media accounts and any other good will of the CTRA.

SECTION 8.04. Structure.

- (a) A local Republican Assembly shall have jurisdiction within the boundaries of a fixed geographical area, approved by CTRA Board of Directors at the time of the local chapter's chartering, and shall be the only such Republican Assembly in that territory. Such territory may be divided into additional Republican Assemblies by the CTRA Board of directors upon petition by the local chapter.
- (b) The preferred geographical area of a local Republican Assembly shall be a county. Unlike Congressional, state senatorial and state representative districts, county borders are not subject to change every ten years. Also, county borders are not gerrymandered, which minimizes average driving time to a central meeting location compared to local organization at Congressional District level. Also, a span of control which does not exceed eight counties is more manageable for the state Board of Directors than one organized on a smaller scale. This preference shall not preclude more than one contiguous county from combining into one local assembly, until such membership numbers are sufficient to form at the single county level.

SECTION 8.05. Bylaws. Each Republican Assembly shall adopt its own bylaws, which shall be in conformance with CTRA and NFRA Bylaws, and shall be subject to review by the Board of Directors of the CTRA and of the NFRA.

SECTION 8.06. Qualifications for Membership. Members of each local Republican Assembly shall be those American citizens of good moral character who are Republicans by voter registration and who agree to uphold all of the Principles of the National Federation of Republican Assemblies.

SECTION 8.07. Action on Applications. The Board of Directors of a local Republican Assembly shall take action on all applications for membership within its geographical jurisdiction within forty-five (45) days or at a regular meeting; otherwise, any application shall be automatically approved and the new member shall be accepted with the right to vote. Any duly rejected application shall be reported within ten (10) days to the Secretary of the Connecticut Republican Assembly. The Board of Directors of the Connecticut Republican Assembly may review any rejected application and determine whatever action is deemed appropriate.

SECTION 8.08. Initial Organization. The CTRA Board of Directors shall have the power to approve the formal application of a new Republican Assembly for chartering if and when its application includes the following:

- (1) Ratification of the Bylaws of the Connecticut Republican Assembly and NFRA;
- (2) Bylaws consistent with the CTRA and NFRA Bylaws;
- (3) A list of at least ten dues-paid members containing their names, addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses and chapter office titles; and
- (4) Dues for each RA member at the rate set by the State Board of Directors (which shall include such dues as are required by the NFRA).

SECTION 8.9. Continuing Requirements. Each chapter shall submit a current list of the names of its officers and members (with addresses, phone and e-mail addresses), and pay appropriate annual dues therefor, not later than April 30 of each year, and shall submit a separate, current list of its officers and members not later than two weeks prior to any State Convention, if such Convention should fall more than three months before or after April 30.

Each chapter shall submit the names (with address, phone number and e-mail address) of new chapter officers within two weeks of their election. Failure to comply with this provision shall empower the CTRA Board of Directors to suspend or terminate the chapter's charter. Any chapter losing its charter under this provision may apply for reinstatement at the next meeting of the CTRA Board of Directors by submitting the missing items to the President at or before such meeting.

SECTION 8.10. State Membership. Any person qualified to become a member of a local Republican Assembly by residing in a geographical area without a local Assembly, may join the Connecticut Republican Assembly without holding membership in a local Assembly, if they otherwise fulfill all conditions of membership in the CTRA. The CTRA Board of Directors shall directly act on such membership applications. Upon the chartering of a local Assembly, members of the CTRA residing within the area served by that local Assembly shall automatically become members of that Republican Assembly.

ARTICLE IX Conventions

SECTION 9.01. Time and Place. A Convention of the Connecticut Republican Assembly shall be held annually at a location and a time determined by the President of the CTRA within the months of January through June inclusive. If the President has not set the time and location for a Convention ten (10) months after the previous year's Convention, the CTRA Board of Directors shall have power to do so in the President's place; and the Board shall have power to require that the location of the annual Conventions shall rotate around the state.

SECTION 9.02. Special Conventions. In case of an emergency, special conventions may be called by the President or one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors. The call for a special Convention shall specify the subjects to be considered, and no subjects shall be considered that are not specified.

SECTION 9.03. Call. The Secretary of the CTRA shall email the President and Secretary of each dually chartered Republican Assembly chapter, an official call to the Annual Convention and e-mail said call to every Connecticut Republican Assembly member for whom an email address has been recorded.

SECTION 9.04. Officers. The officers of each Convention shall be the officers of the CTRA. At or prior to any Convention, the President may appoint a Recording Secretary of the Convention to assist the President and the Secretary.

SECTION 9.06. Elected Delegates. Each chapter which is in the good standing of the CTRA at the time of the State Convention shall be entitled to one Delegate for each five (5) members in good standing carried on the chapter's active membership roll whose name and dues were included in the requirements of Section 8.10.

SECTION 9.07. Delegates-at-Large. All members of the CTRA Board of Directors, and all Past Presidents of the CTRA who remain members in good standing, shall be Delegates-at-Large at all State Conventions, and shall not be counted in the number of Delegates accorded their chapter by Section 9.06.

SECTION 9.08. Noncompliant Chapters. Notwithstanding Section 9.06 above, a chapter which remains recognized by the CTRA but fails to comply with the credentialing provisions of Section 8.10 above shall be entitled only to Delegates-at-Large at the State Convention.

SECTION 9.09. Election of Delegates and Alternates. Each Delegate and Alternate shall be elected by the membership of his or her local chapter. Any Republican Assembly in good standing, at the time of electing its Delegates for a Convention as herein specified, may elect one Alternate for each Delegate. Said Delegates, Alternates, and all Delegates-at-Large shall be active members in good standing of the Republican Assemblies they represent.

SECTION 9.10. Registration Fee. The Board of Directors shall establish the registration fee to be paid to the CTRA by all members attending any state Convention. No Delegate, Delegate-at-Large, nor Alternate shall be entitled to vote in a Convention unless and until his or her registration fee has been paid. The profit or loss accruing from any Convention shall be borne by the CTRA.

SECTION 9.11. Voting.

- (a) In all voting, a majority shall rule, unless otherwise provided in the Bylaws.
- (b) In all Conventions of the Connecticut Republican Assembly, each accredited Delegate and Delegate-at-Large shall be entitled to cast one vote.
- (c) There shall be no voting by proxy at any meeting.

- (e) A quorum shall consist of one-third (1/3) of Delegates and Delegates-at-Large attending the Convention.

SECTION 9.12. Endorsement of Candidates. Endorsement of candidates shall be made only by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of those present and voting at a regular or special Convention of the Connecticut Republican Assembly. Only one person may be endorsed for a particular office. Endorsement may be for candidates for public office, for or against recall, constitutional amendments, initiatives for referenda, or for Republican Party offices.

ARTICLE X

SECTION 10.04. Election of National Convention Delegates and Alternates. Any active member in good standing of the Connecticut Republican Assembly shall be eligible to be elected a Delegate or Alternate to the NFRA National Convention, provided that the person is qualified under Section 5.03; but no person shall be submitted as a candidate without his consent.

ARTICLE XI

Endorsement of Local Candidates

SECTION 11.01. Two-thirds Vote of an Endorsing Convention. Endorsements of local candidates for public office may be made only by a two-thirds vote of an endorsing convention, at a physical meeting composed of equal representation of all Republican Assemblies within the district (in whole or in part) from which the candidate proposed for endorsement is to be elected, or the official proposed to be recalled is an elected official.
